STERNS & WEINROTH WELCOMES SUMMER ASSOCIATES

June 12, 2007, Trenton, NJ – The Trenton-based law firm of Sterns & Weinroth, P.C., is pleased to announce that David Dziengowski and Christine A. Shaw have joined the firm as Summer Associates.

Mr. Dziengowski attends Rutgers University School of Law in Camden, and expects to receive his J.D. in May, 2008. He is a 2005 cum laude graduate of The College of New Jersey, where he received a B.A. in History with a minor in Philosophy. Mr. Dziengowski is a member of the Rutgers Law Journal, and recently was selected as a Henry J. Raimondo Legislative Fellow by the Eagleton Institute of Politics. His legal experience includes an internship with the Office of the Attorney General in the Division of Law, Employment Litigation Section. He also is actively involved with Habitat for Humanity, Head Start and the International Charter School.

Ms. Shaw attends Rutgers University School of Law in Newark, where she serves as Articles Editor for the Rutgers Conflict Resolution Journal. She expects to receive her J.D. in October, 2007. She is a graduate of Princeton University, where she earned a Bachelors in Civil Engineering in 1997, and Pennsylvania State University, where she earned a Masters in Civil Engineering in 1998. Ms. Shaw has been licensed as a Professional Engineer since 2002, and previously worked as a Law Clerk for the Office of the Attorney General, Division of Law, Environmental Permitting and Counseling Section.

Sterns & Weinroth's Summer Associate Program has been a successful recruiting source for the firm since 1995, with a number of summer associates beginning their practice at the law firm, either upon graduation from law school or after completion of a judicial clerkship.

Sterns & Weinroth has provided legal services from its Trenton location for almost 40 years and concentrates its practice in the following areas: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights, Gaming, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional.
