Jason S. Feinstein

Jason Feinstein focuses on civil litigation, including trials and appeals, with emphasis in professional liability, product liability, commercial, corporate, and negligence law. He has significant experience in the use of alternative dispute resolution, including arbitration and mediation, as a means to reduce clients' legal costs, and regularly appears before the American Arbitration Association.

Mr. Feinstein has served as an adjunct professor in the A.A. Paralegal Program at Mercer County Community College, where he taught an advanced civil litigation course which was accredited by the American Bar Association.

Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Feinstein was a judicial clerk to the Honorable Burrell Ives Humphreys, Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division, during the 1994-1995 court term.
