STERNS & WEINROTH'S RICHARD VAN WAGNER SHARES LOBBYING KNOWLEDGE AT ICLE SEMINAR

December 11, 2004, Trenton, NJ — Richard J. Van Wagner, an attorney with the Trenton-based law firm Sterns & Weinroth, P.C., was a panelist at the New Jersey ICLE seminar, “Lobbying for Lawyers,” held Friday, December 10 at the Lafayette Yard Marriott Hotel in Trenton. More than xxx registered lobbyists, attorneys and other interested parties attend the seminar, which included a discussion of trends and updates within New Jersey’s attorney-lobbying arena, as well as practice tips and methods that can help lead to successful client representation.

Mr. Van Wagner focuses his practice at Sterns & Weinroth on legislative affairs, administrative litigation and regulatory counseling. As a Registered Legislative Agent, he lobbies on behalf of property and casualty insurers, financial institutions, transportation-related entities, casinos and post-secondary education institutions before the New Jersey State Legislature, the Office of the Governor and a variety of state agencies, commissions and regulatory authorities.

He is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and the International Association of Gaming Attorneys. He received his law degree from the Seton Hall University School of Law in 1990.

Sterns & Weinroth, P.C., concentrates in Administrative/Governmental Law, Bankruptcy/Creditors’ Rights, Litigation, and Real Estate/Transactional Law. The firm also has the largest Gaming practice in New Jersey and one of the largest in the country. For more information, please visit www.sternslaw.com.
