Sterns & Weinroth Welcomes New Associates

October 2009, Trenton, NJ – Sterns & Weinroth, P.C. is pleased to announce the expansion of its Litigation Practice Group, with the addition of two lawyers, Neil M. Day and Christopher P. Midura.

Neil Day focuses his practice on general litigation and has extensive experience in cases involving professional liability and products liability. He represents clients in all aspects of business and commercial law, including real estate, land use and construction disputes. In addition, Mr. Day is experienced in labor and employment law, including the litigation and counseling in such areas as the review and negotiation of employment contracts and collective bargaining agreements. He also serves as general counsel for several small businesses, providing counseling and litigation support in a variety of commercial settings such as contract formation, employment issues, regulatory counseling and general litigation support.

Mr. Day currently serves as an adjunct professor at Seton Hall University School of Law, teaching legal research and writing. He remains an active member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, serving in a variety of volunteer capacities as an alumnus and advisor. He is also active in his community, serving as a Director for the Lopatcong Athletic Association and a volunteer coach for multiple sports.

Christopher Midura is a recent graduate of Seton Hall University School of Law in Newark. He earned his JD with honors, while serving as a member of the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board. Prior to joining the Firm, he served as law clerk at Avolio & Hanlon, P.C. Mr. Midura earned a Bachelors of Arts degree in Business from The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, where he served as president of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Sterns & Weinroth has provided quality legal services and personalized attention, from its Trenton location, for 40 years within its five principal practice areas: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights, Gaming, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional.
