FRANK J. PETRINO SPEAKS AT ICLE SEMINAR

October 14, 2005, Trenton, NJ – Frank J. Petrino, Chair of the Real Estate/Transactional Practice Group and a Director at Trenton based law firm, Sterns & Weinroth, P.C., was a panelist at a recent ICLE program, “Practice Before Local Zoning Boards,” at the Doubletree Hotel in Mt. Laurel. Mr. Petrino, along with other experienced land use practitioners, addressed issues and situations that can occur while dealing with a Planning or Zoning Board.

Mr. Petrino focuses his practice on the acquisition, development and financing of real estate. He represents national, regional and local builders and developers before municipal, county, state and federal agencies with respect to the development of fee simple and common interest residential communities and business and industrial parks. He enjoys a statewide reputation in the complex area of New Jersey redevelopment law and has represented numerous clients regarding Brownfields sites. Mr. Petrino has extensive litigation experience in cases involving the use, sale and environmental impact of real estate development. He also represents clients in commercial litigation.

He is a member of the Mercer County, New Jersey State and American Bar Associations and the New Jersey Builders Association. Mr. Petrino was recently recognized by his peers as one of New Jersey's 2005 Super Lawyers.

With offices in Trenton and Princeton, Sterns & Weinroth concentrates its practice in the following areas of law: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional. The firm also has one of the largest Gaming practices in the country. For more information, please visit www.sternslaw.com.
