STERNS & WEINROTH WELCOMES MICHELLE LEBOVITZ LAMAR

March 14, 2007, Trenton, NJ – Sterns & Weinroth, P.C. is pleased to announce the addition of Michelle Lebovitz Lamar, who has joined the firm as Counsel in its Real Estate/Transactional Practice Group.

Michelle Lamar focuses her practice in real estate, concentrating in land use law, commercial law and litigation. Ms. Lamar has served as Zoning Board Attorney for Hamilton Township, Housing Board Attorney for Washington Township, and as Legal Staff for the New Jersey Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency. Ms. Lamar also has served as an Assistant Professor, Adjunct Faculty, in the Liberal Arts and Business Divisions of Mercer County Community College.

Ms. Lamar earned her J.D. in 1988 from Rutgers University School of Law in Camden. She attended Rutgers University, The Graduate School, where she was awarded an M.A. in Political Science and Masters of City and Regional Planning. She was an Eagleton Fellow at the Eagleton Institute of Politics. Ms. Lamar received her B.A. from Williams College. She is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, including the District of New Jersey and Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and is licensed as a Professional Planner and certified by the American Institute of Certified Planners.

She is active in community activities, serving on the Board of Trustees of Interfaith Hospitality Network of Mercer County and as Elder for the First Presbyterian Church of Hamilton Square.

Sterns & Weinroth has provided legal services from its Trenton location for almost 40 years and concentrates its practice in the following areas: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights, Gaming, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional. For more information, please visit:
