STERNS & WEINROTH WELCOMES DAVID P. SKAND

May 26, 2011, Trenton, NJ – Sterns & Weinroth, P.C. is pleased to announce that David P. Skand has joined the firm as an Associate in its Litigation Practice Group.

Mr. Skand's practice is concentrated on litigation matters. He has litigated matters in the State, Federal, and United States Bankruptcy courts, as well as New Jersey's Office of Administrative Law. In addition, he has extensive appellate court experience.

Mr. Skand earned his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law in Camden, New Jersey. Mr. Skand served as a Deputy Attorney General with the New Jersey Attorney General's office where he represented, among other state agencies, the State Treasury Department. In that role, Mr. Skand served as counsel to the Public Employees' Retirement System, as well as the Police and Fireman's Retirement System. Mr. Skand has also handled public employee pension matters while serving as a Deputy Attorney General.

Mr. Skand has practiced in the areas of general and commercial litigation, appellate litigation, OAL hearings, insurance coverage, real estate and corporate matters, zoning and land use, and landlord/tenant. He has briefed and argued numerous matters on behalf of the agencies of the State of New Jersey as well other clients. In addition, his practice has also included foreclosures, replevins, repossessions and other creditor's rights matters, including representation in the Bankruptcy Courts, and the U.S. Third Circuit.

In 2010, Mr. Skand was named a "Top Lawyer" in the field of Landlord/Tenant law by South Jersey magazine. This honor was bestowed upon him because he was able to demonstrate an ability that sets him apart from others in his field.

Sterns & Weinroth, PC has provided legal services from its Trenton location for more than 40 years and concentrates its practice in the following areas: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights, Gaming, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional.
