STERNS & WEINROTH WELCOMES SUMMER ASSOCIATES

May 26, 2006, Trenton, NJ – The Trenton-based law firm of Sterns & Weinroth, P.C., is pleased to announce that Marcie D. Seiler and Grace E. Strom have joined the firm as Summer Associates.

Ms. Seiler attends the Temple University Beasley School of Law and expects to receive her J.D. in May 2007. She is a member of the Women’s Law Caucus and is the Articles Editor of Temple’s Political and Civil Rights Law Review. She is a 2004 graduate of Pennsylvania State University’s Schreyer Honors College, where she received a B.A. in Political Science with a Minor in English.

Ms. Seiler’s legal experience includes a judicial internship with the late Honorable Clarence C. Newcomer, U.S. District Judge, Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Grace E. Strom attends Rutgers University School of Law, Newark, and also expects to receive her J.D. in May 2007. She holds a Masters in Public Affairs and Politics (M.P.A.P.) from the Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers University, and is a 2001 cum laude graduate of Rutgers College, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, where she earned a B.A. in Political Science.

Ms. Strom previously worked with the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities as a Legislative Liaison between the board of Public Utilities, the Governor’s office and members of the New Jersey Legislature on matters involving electric and gas, clean energy, water, and telecommunications.

The Sterns & Weinroth Summer Associate Program has been a successful recruiting source since 1995, with a number of summer associates beginning their practice at the law firm, either upon graduation from law school or after completion of a judicial clerkship.

Sterns & Weinroth concentrates its practice in the following areas of law: Administrative/Governmental, Bankruptcy/Creditors’ Rights, Litigation and Real Estate/Transactional. The firm also has the largest Gaming practice in New Jersey and a large national practice. For more information, please visit www.sternslaw.com.
